Donna Hopkins is the real deal. Born and raised on an Alabama farm, Donna witnessed life in the South first hand, channeling it into the soulful music that she creates and performs. Music runs in her family; her mother performed rock and roll in go-go boots and mini-skirts and her grandfather was a fine musician in his own right. Donna is a consummate seasoned songwriter and performer, and has opened for and shared the stage with such luminaries as Col. Bruce Hampton, Derek Trucks, Francine Reed, Joe Bonamassa, Emily Saliers, Jerry Lee Lewis, Stevie Wonder, Tanya Tucker and Robert Cray.

As much at home in an intimate listening venue as she is on a giant festival stage, Donna Hopkins performs both solo and accompanied by the perfectly seasoned group of musicians who make up the Donna Hopkins Band, and is always a crowd pleaser.

"She's her own woman with equal parts John Lee Hooker and Billy Gibbons, and a dash of Jimmie Vaughan and Robin Trower circa Bridge of Sighs." - Georgia Music Magazine

"Lightning in a bottle." Eddie's Attic

"Donna Hopkins is a force of nature." - Rob Johnson, Hittin' The Note

"'Anything' by Donna Hopkins...now there's a great blues song! There needs to be more blues songs written like this." – Bruce Iglauer, Alligator Records
